

Domestic Abuse Youth Advocate

The Domestic Abuse Youth Advocate is a full-time salaried position. The primary responsibility of this position is direct service to victims/survivors of domestic abuse and intimate partner violence. This position serves victims of all ages as needed. This position has a specific emphasis on working with youth, teens, college students and parenting victims of domestic violence. The Domestic Abuse Youth Advocate is responsible to the Domestic Abuse Program Supervisor and is a member of the Domestic Abuse Comprehensive Services Team. This position is based in Story County. Work may occur in any/all areas of ACCESS' service area, including Iowa State University (ISU) campus, Boone, Greene, Marshall and Tama counties.

90% of this position is considered direct service in the capacity of serving primary or secondary victims and/or preparing the community to respond effectively to the needs of victims. 10% of the role involves primary prevention duties.

This position participates in an on-call response system for abuse victims/survivors during day, evening and weekend hours.

Victim-Centered Responsibilities

Provide assessment of needs to victims/survivors in order to understand the best way to promote safety and healing in the victims'/survivors' lives.
Perform crisis advocacy and intervention to assist a victim/survivor in attaining emotional and physical safety.
Provide systems advocacy to reduce barriers and promote victim/survivor connection to essential services.
Provide individual and/or group counseling to victims/survivors.
Provide information and referral to victims/survivors to increase their connection to resources and support.
Provide assistance to family members and support systems of the victim/survivor when impacted by the abuse, including all forms of advocacy listed above.

Program, Administrative, and Educational Responsibilities

Provide educational programs/trainings to schools, service agencies, community groups, etc.
Maintain client records and files.
Share office support duties with other domestic abuse program staff members.
Attend and participate in community councils, coalitions, and meetings as assigned.
Serve as a liaison to youth serving agencies, including Department of Human Services, Juvenile Court Services, youth development and counseling providers, school personnel, and child care providers.
Maintain a professional and positive attitude in all interactions while representing ACCESS.
Network and collaborate with local, regional and statewide victim service providers, particularly in the area of youth service.
Collect and report on statistics of victim service and program/education provision.
Other duties as assigned.

Expectation of Continued Learning

Attend relevant conferences and trainings.
Remain current on domestic violence and other forms of intimate partner violence research.

Gain understanding of special populations as applies to service provision, including but not limited to youth victims, immigrant/international victims, elder victims, male victims, LGBT victims, and various other populations.
Remain current and informed of systems that a victim/survivor may need to navigate such as DHS, civil/criminal legal systems, Iowa State University systems, and services that offer emergency assistance.
Remain current on trends of best care and intervention with victims/survivors of intimate partner violence.
Remain informed on legislative issues. Keep current on changes in the Iowa Code.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will have a proven ability to navigate evolving social climates while providing client centered care. They will be committed to completing tasks in a fast-paced environment and able to support diverse clientele while maintaining an understanding of available resources. ACCESS staff should be empathetic, inclusive and non-judgmental. Service provision should focus on the self-determination and empowerment of the victim/survivor. This position provides an opportunity to engage with community members, victim service agencies, coalitions, as well as state and local systems. We are seeking candidates who excel in:

- Client centered care
- Relationship-building with diverse populations and youth
- Managing multiple projects
- Thinking outside the box and finding creative solutions

Due to the on call duties of this position, candidates must be able to maintain an hour response time when driving from home. Providing services across multiple counties requires that this position have a valid driver's license, a good driving record according and ongoing access to a reliable and insured personal vehicle, or ability to acquire these within the first month of hire. As part of the hiring process we complete a background check. Not all results are disqualifying and we encourage candidates to discuss potential findings with hiring personnel.

Upon hire, all staff must successfully complete the 32-hour ACCESS victim advocacy training and continued training as needed/requested to maintain ICADV requirements and to meet the requirements of Chapter 915.20 of the Iowa Code.

Preferred Qualifications Include

Knowledge of the dynamics of abuse and the impact of abuse on children and families. Bilingual candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.